

Below is a picture of Anne Bowman, one of the ship's guns on Spirit of Dana Point. Draw your own cannon below!

Looking back on the video, which tools were used to clean the gun before firing? Circle the tools.

There are no cannons on a ship...they call them a ship's gun! The only difference between the two is that a cannon is on land and a gun is on a ship at sea. Sailor's have their own language that includes different words for things we have on land. Use these pictures to answer the three questions below.

How many cannons are there? _____

How many guns are there? _____

Which is your favorite? _____

You are a ship's gunner in a battle with another ship. Write your short story as a gunner in battle; was your ship victorious?

Gunners must record all the shots they fire while at sea. Record your “shots” from the cannon you built at home!

Date/Time	Target & Distance from Cannon	Hit the target?	Notes (how to improve and hit target etc.)